

OUR CASTLE OF KINGS

Community Archaeological dig at Tarbert Castle – BOOKING REQUEST FORM

Proposed Archaeological dig days during which training and activity will take place are below.

We can only have about 6 volunteers per day starting 10.00am with tea/lunch breaks finishing 4.00pm. Equipment is available and training will be given in basic archaeological skills.

We understand that circumstances might change but please try to give us an indication of when you might be available to take part for whole days if possible and several if you can.

One weekend is available for those who cannot manage during the week and there may be more weekend working if enough interest. We will remain flexible and will make every effort accommodate everyone's availability, needs, abilities and concerns – After all it's not a work camp our aim is for everyone to enjoy the experience.

In addition to the volunteers who wish to dig we will need “ambassadors” to talk to visitors about what we are doing and help with catering and other peripheral tasks. If you are interested in this please comment or let me know by email. We have indicated booking status on table below.

To return click on “reply” and then you can type in yes etc where appropriate below then “send” alternatively a download version is attached which can be filled in by hand and returned to me or put in box in Ian Macintye's shop
