Return Home Alone Consent

I give permission for my child to return home alone (including travelling on buses provided) at the conclusion of each youth work session.

Yes No

If you tick no, you will need to collect your child at the end of each Youth Work session.

Please note that your child may wish to leave the youth activity at any point during the session and cannot be legally prevented from doing so, as their attendance at the facility is on a voluntary basis.

Children attending Junior Youth Club will be expected to remain under the supervision of youth club until the end of the session, and those travelling on buses provided to remain until able to board their bus.

"Parents and young participants should be aware that outdoor activities potentially pose a danger of personal injury or death. Parents, and participants taking part in these and other similar activities, should be aware of, and accept these risks and be responsible for their own actions and involvement. The above, though must be seen in context, major accidents whilst engaged in an adventurous activity are relatively few and far between. All precautions have been taken to minimise risks."
