

Christmas Lunch December 2015

Crookston Hotel on Thursday, 10 December was a real fun place to be! The hotel was decked out in its festive finery, as were the attendees, 31 in all. In the background, Christmas carols could just about be heard above the excited chatter and laughter of those anticipating their festive fayre brought hot to the tables by Crookston's helpful staff. We were pleased to have amongst us, Ruth Beattie (Hon. President of Glasgow Branch), Fiona Macdonald (Hon. Chairperson) and Margaret Sanders (Hon. Secretary).

Pictured opposite with Fiona (right) were newcomers to the Seniors' Group, Sandra Fraser and Mary Lamb. After two courses with tea/coffee, Katherine Morrison introduced a Christmas Quiz ... Fractured Christmas Song Titles ... and time was given for its completion.

Also pictured are our members, Helen, Bessie and Anna (L to R) enjoying the challenge. There were prizes, graciously presented by Ruth Beattie, for those who got all the answers correct and the runners up. The organiser brought the afternoon to a close with a humorous verse about the 'Twelve 12 Days of Christmas' where a turkey had a starring role.

A big 'thank you' to all who entered into the festive spirit of the event.

Daphne Davidson,
Seniors' Group Organiser
