A voice for older people in Scotland

Follow us on Facebook and Twitter

The Scottish Older People's Assembly is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation number - SC046520.

What does SOPA do?

Throughout the year SOPA promotes the voice of older people

- meeting with local groups
- recording and collating concerns
- issuing a newsletter
- meeting government ministers
- connecting with other politicians
- contacting officials and professionals
- using the press and social media
- arranging the annual Assembly

SOPA's Aims

Ensure recognition of the contributions of Scotland's older people in influencing policies and services

Improve opportunities for older people's experience and voice to be heard on matters of concern

Enable people to use their experience and skills of a lifetime to develop solutions

Connect people in later life to decision-makers in government and to service providers throughout Scotland

Ensure people are not excluded from decision-making in older age and are made more aware of their rights

Increase people's access to resources and services that enhance quality of life

Promote opportunities for active citizenship

Encourage involvement in influencing policy decisions affecting later life

Create a climate of optimism about the benefits to society of an active older generation

Aim for equality and social justice for all in Scotland
