Flying film treat for Shapinsay!

The newly refurbished Screen Machine mobile cinema will be making its second visit ever to Shapinsay this month for one night only with two very different films so be sure to make it a date for your diary if you're interested.

On Monday November the 13th there will be a showing of the popular 'Victoria and Abdul' film at 5.30pm followed by the long awaited Bladerunner 2049 at 8.30pm.

You can book in advance online

<https://screenmachine.co.uk/locations/shapinsay/> or just turn up half an hour before the performance and buy a ticket at the door. There will be a private screening of Lego Ninjago for Shapinsay School the following morning before mobile cinema packs up and moves on.

Movie Mondays at the Boathouse

The Screen Machine's visit coincides with Orkney's first ever Film Fortnight making us part of the event and the film theme is to continue with a series of free Movie Mondays at the Boathouse at 2.30pm in the afternoon, from Monday November 20th.

The idea is to show some movies with interesting themes then maybe discuss some of them over a cuppa afterwards. The first showing, on our big screen TV, will be The Shack film which made its Orkney debut at the Pickaquoy Centre earlier this year. Anyone interested in being kept informed of up and coming

Monday showings at the Boathouse should ring the SDT office on 711733 or email cao@shapinsay.org.uk
