

Website Privacy Statement

Information Collection and Use

- The Dornoch & District Community Association (DADCA) is the sole owner of any information collected on this site.
- We will not sell, share, or rent this information to others.

Cookies

- A cookie is a piece of data stored on the user's hard drive containing information about the user.
- Our site does not use cookies.

Links

- This web site may contain links to other sites.
- Please be aware that DADCA is not responsible for the privacy practices of such other sites.
- We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site and to read the privacy statements of each and every web site that collects personally identifiable information.
- This privacy statement applies solely to information collected by this Web site.

Correcting/Updating Personal Information

- If your personally identifiable information changes (such as office address), we will endeavour to provide a way to correct, update or remove the personal data provided to us.

Notification of Changes

- If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on our Homepage so our users are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances, if any, we disclose it.
- If at any point we decide to use personally identifiable information in a manner different from that stated at the time it was collected, we will notify users by way of an email.
- Users will have a choice as to whether or not we use their information in this different manner.
- If not, we will use information in accordance with the privacy policy under which the information was collected.

Security

The Website may only be updated by authorised DADCA appointees. Currently these are the Chair, Secretary, Treasurer & IT Advisor.
