

John Duns Scotus Study Day

Saturday 15 October 2016

09.00 onwards Registration at Christ Church, Teindhillgreen, Duns
10.00 Welcome (Derek Janes)

Session 1: Contexts

Chair: Professor Graeme Small, Deputy Head of Faculty (Postgraduate), Durham University

10.15–10.55 The Reverend Canon Anne Dyer, Scotland bore me. (Scotia me genuit)

Rector of Holy Trinity Church, Haddington (which occupies the site of the Franciscan Friary where it is likely that John Duns Scotus received his early education) will talk about John Duns Scotus' formative years.
rect.holytrinityhadd@btinternet.com

10.55–11.15 Coffee break

Session 2: Exploring Intellectual Traditions

Chair: Professor Graeme Small

11.15–11.55 Professor Mary Beth Ingham CSJ., The Contours of a Rational Will: Franciscan Implications and Christian Humanism

Professor of Philosophical Theology, Franciscan School of Theology, University of San Diego, Ca., will speak about Duns Scotus and Christian Humanism. mingham@fst.edu

11.55–12.35 Professor Paul Starkey, Duns Scotus and Other Intellectual Traditions

Emeritus Professor, Department of Arabic, Durham University, will speak on the wider intellectual traditions within which Duns Scotus wrote his philosophical and theological works. p.g.starkey@durham.ac.uk

12.35–13.40 Lunch break

Session 3: Impact and Influence

Chair: Reverend Dr Kenneth G. Webb, Priest-in-Charge, Christ Church, Duns

13.40–14.20 Professor Antonie Vos, John Duns de Duns

Professor of Historical Theology at the Evangelical Theological Faculty in Leuven (Belgium). Author of, among many other works, The Philosophy of John Duns Scotus (2006). He will speak about the worldwide influence of John Duns Scotus. antoonvos44@gmail.com

14.20–15.00 Dr Philip Tonner, Scotus in modern beholding

Head of Philosophy and Religion & Director, The Hutchesons' Centre for Research, Hutchesons' Grammar School, Glasgow, will speak on the relevance of John Duns Scotus to contemporary philosophy.
TonnerP@hutchesons.org

15.00–15.20 Tea

Session 4: Theological Perspectives

Chair: Reverend Jennifer Edie, SSF, Priest at Scottish Episcopal Church, Eyemouth

15.20–16.00 Dr Herbert Schneider, OFM, Person as co-lover according to John Duns Scotus

Director of the Johannes-Duns-Scotus-Akademie Mönchengladbach, editor and author of many works on the theology of John Duns Scotus. herbert.schneider.ofm@gmx.de

16.00–16.30

Where do we go from here?

Publication plans [Philip Tonner and Paul Starkey]

Closing remarks [Derek Janes and Jennifer Edie]