

Chesterton Community Association

Annual General Meeting

30th November 2017

St Andrew's Hall, St Andrew's Road at 7.30pm

Your chance to come and see what's been going on in the past year and have your say and put your ideas and views forward.

We have three exciting and informative speakers:-

The Manager of the Library Services Sue Wills will talk about Milton Road Library and the future of the library service – 'Where are we going from here'.

Sadi Soul the artists of the mural on the wall of the Co-op, corner of Green End Road and Milton Road, will talk about the community inspiration, interest and input to the mural. Your feedback and thoughts would also be welcome.

Rachel Clark, manager of St Andrew's Hall and Michael Bond – 'What's going on in Chesterton' - talking about the many interesting and varied activities which happen in St Andrew's Hall throughout the year.

Chesterton Community Association are looking for people 18-90+, who are interested in the local community, feel they could be a valuable contributor and have the energy to get things done. If this appeals to you and you have a couple of hours a month free then come and talk to us.

Our committee secretary keeps track of our decisions is moving away, if you think you would enjoy this valuable position, please contact the E-mail below. If that's not your bag, are you a whiz with computers? Yes? Then you're the person we need. Our Website of late has lost its way and needs someone with imagination and the know how to get it buzzing again. Your community association needs you! Contact us via enquiries@mycca.org.uk but better still come along to the meeting on the 30th November and talk to us.
