Contestant's comments:

What an incredible contest - I'd planned to just make the 8P mult available for the deserving - suddenly the rate was good and I never looked back. Dean 8P6SH

UK citizen living in DL, it was natural for me to take part .. superb contest.
Richard DK1RF

Not a winning entry but got some contacts on 40 & 80m that amazed me! Kendo
GOPCA

Apart from a bad start due to Murphy visiting and causing me to have five hours fixing a rotator control unit, thus missing all the USA opening on 15, it was great to be back in a RTTY contest again after a few years away! Roger G3LDI

This is a first time contest entry after "encouragement" from Dick '3URA. Also a first attempt using MixW rather than the usual MMTTY. Ran 30 watts to an inverted vee dipole, as ever enjoyed the event even though time was very limited. Rod G3TXA

Thanks for running the contest - my first BARTG entry & now a BARTG Member!
Victor G7TMU

Pretty poor conditions - Wonder if all that Auroral activity had anything to do with it :-). I intended to keep going for the whole 24hr but by 0135 things were so slow that the call of bed won! Andy GM8OEG

Not so many stations could be logged due to lack of propagation. However it was very real interesting time for me. Thanks to everybody! See you next time.
Jongpil Shin HL3AHQ

Enjoyable Contest!!!! Big amusement!!! Agreeable formula. Good propagation Saturday, poor Sunday. Tnx EA8/DJ1OJ five band qso Africa. Bob I1COB

Band condition is very bad, but I have QSOed with the station in Britain, and only G3LDI on 20m. Toshio Takahashi JA1BWA

Great contest. My first time as a participant. The band was not open over the poles to Europe, however, so I missed all those mults. Richard K7BTW

Short time for operation, beer evening at the Icelandic Radio Amateurs club
Hihi. Seli TF3AO

Managed to put in 14 hours. Found a strong station that wouldn't print correctly, then found it again an hour later. Tried inverted, and there he was.
I worked him and let him know he was inverted, Found him later on rightside up.
Condx and activity seemed down this year. Thanks to all I worked. 73 Paul VA3PC

So much fun, will come again. Claude VE2FK

Conditions into VK were not very good but good practice for future years. Jim VK3DBQ

Casual effort which was was my first entry into single op RTTY mode. Hope to participate more frequently now that I got my feet wet. Bill VY2LI

My first contest of any type. My first time on RTTY was one week ago. I had a great time! Thanks for the contest. Joe W3JU/2

This is my first BARTG RTTY contest, having a lot of fun, Next time will be much better, see you next year! SARDJANA YC2ECG

I had to work hard to come within 10 QSO's of last year's score. Again no African Continent. 40m was good - the low solar flux is making contesting from the South Pacific a challenge. Bob ZL2AMI

Contest Manager's Comments:

The 5th BARTG Sprint contest was very well supported and has become a 'must' on the annual RTTY contest list. Entries were up from 400 last year to over 500 this year, due to the popularity of this contest and RTTY contesting in general. It was good to see so many entries from countries such as Korea which were hard to find just a few years ago. There were reports of difficult band conditions due to some auroral effects and widespread storms through parts of the U.S. but increased participation kept rates high, with scores slightly up on last year. Congratulations to our winners and thanks to our trophy sponsors and all who took part.

Our two RTTY contests are free to enter but cost money to run. BARTG is a small group of amateur radio data ops, unfunded except for membership income. If you have enjoyed the BARTG contests we need you to give a little bit back by joining us. International membership is not expensive .. less than the cost of a newspaper once a week .. you can pay by Paypal with no hassle or extra cost. You will get a monthly RTTY magazine covering all the latest contest and award news plus much more. We need extra members if we are to continue giving out more superb trophies and certificates each year, so please have a look at our website, press the buttons and join us now:
