

CROMARTY ALLOTMENTS AND GARDENS SOCIETY

AGENDA OF QUARTERLY MEETING - JANUARY 22nd, 2015

1. APOLOGIES FOR ABSENCE - Jane Clunas, Maggie Dove, Marjorie Patterson.

2. MINUTES OF LAST MEETING: - Proposed by Barbel Dister, seconded by Helen Elliott and Ross Couper.

3. MEMBERSHIP: no new members

4. ACCOUNTS: Membership and Allotment Fees are due in May 2015, so it was agreed that greater effort should be invested sorting out Co-op bank account access which has been problematic for 2 years. Once this is corrected, Treasure to prepare end of year figures for 2014.

4. ALLOTMENTS:

- Old Tennis Courts tidying

An email was sent to all plot-holders advising that tidying of communal paths had become necessary. This has had some effect and paths are in better condition.

- Vanessa Halhead's overdue plot-fee was paid, and she has advised that she would like to continue with the plot. She has been asked to remove docks and thistles which are taking hold on her plot.

- John Whyte has given up his plot, and this has now been taken over by the next person on the waiting list - Ewan Garratt.

- Forsyth House Beds:

- A successful cleanup and replanting was organised in the late Autumn by John Wood with assistance by volunteers. Included planting of mixed bulbs for Spring - daffodils, crocuses, etc.

- John Wood is to liaise with the Community Council about agreed annual £125 grant for beds to clarify if this is still to be provided annually.

5. COURTHOUSE ORCHARD - Scythed by Colin in later October and is ready for winter. Spring scything to be undertaken March/April before growing season becomes advanced.

6. DATE, TIME AND VENUE for next meeting Thursday 15th April, 7.00pm at 4 Barkly Street.

7. ANY OTHER BUSINESS

John Wood asked to have his offer of a free greens-house emailed out to all members again.
